TO-DAY'S GAMES.

Dayton at Fort Wayne.

The Wheelings won the first game of the series with Youngstown yesterday afternoon, after nine out of every ten in the audience had made up their minds that Wheeling was to be defeated. Whisen had been put in to pitch, and in the third inning he was very wild, and in addition was hit hard, the result being five runs. As Wheeling had never been able to do anything with "Jack" Roach's curves the game was given up as hopeless. But, Lytle was game, and replaced Whisen with Parvin, who pitched an elegant game of ball. He relieved Whisen in the third inning, after five runs had been scored with but one hand down. Berte he struck out, and the next and third out was Roach, who sent a fly to right field, which "Pop" negotiated neatly.

Dobbs opened the game with a scratch base hit down the first base line and "Billy" Niles followed with a clean single that sent Dobbs to third. Taylor struck out, and at the same moment Niles went down the line to second. Latimer threw for the out, but the throw was wide and low—results, Niles safe on second and Dobbs scoring the first run of the game from third base. Lyons' out to Wright sent Niles to third, but Turner was the third out.

In the second inning, Whisen gave two bases on balls and hit O'Brien, filling the bases, but Roach was the third out, Whisen to Turner. In the third, however, Whisen was not so lucky. Pender walked, Truby hit for two bases, Connor drew a base on balls, O'Brien was hit by a pitched ball, Durrett singled and Latimer hit for a double, a total of five runs. Just here Parvin relieved Whisen, and struck out Berte, while Roach sent a fly to the outfield for the third out. "Bones" was heartily applauded for his fine work.

Wheeling got in the game in the fifth inning. With Cote an out, Leahy, Parvin, Dobbs, Niles, Taylor and Lyons made singles in a row. Turner was safe on Pender's error, and Lytle made his second single. Cote made his second out of the inning, a strike-out. The result of this beautiful batting rally was five runs, putting the Stogies one run to the good.

Neither side scored any more runs.

BASE BALL COMMENT

The Wheeling and Youngstown teams do not play double-header this afternoon. Instead, only one game will be played, which begins at 3:45 o'clock. Wells or Poole will pitch for the Stogies, and McFarland will twirl for the visitors. A double-header will be played Saturday.

The inter-state race became most interesting through the shut-out victory achieved by New Castle over Mansfield. If New Castle can take three straight, the result will be very much in doubt. Wheeling closes the season at New Castle next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, and it may devolve upon the Stogies to knock out the Quakers' pennant aspirations. Most Wheeling fans, however, would rather see New Castle than Mansfield win the rag.

Fievin jumped into the game yesterday after Whisen had let the Giants accumulate what looked to be an overwhelming lead, and pitched a great article of ball, allowing only five hits and no runs, while the Stogies were showing Roach how indifferent a pitcher he really is.

Last—One snappy, sizzling ball team, that played better ball than any team in the inter-state a few months ago. Information will be cheerfully received by the patrons of the game in Toledo—Toledo Blade.

Up in Toledo they are hard losers. This from the Toledo Blade, voices the feeling there: What has become of the famous ball tosser who started the season with such a show of form in Toledo? They seem to have resolved into a set of pickers of late, with no ambition to win a game, and only the thought of the season's end in their minds. Perhaps the bad showing of the team is due to the fact that to-day's team is exactly the same which opened the season with Fort Wayne in this city. Not one change has been made in the entire season, and only three players have been out of the game, a week's lay-off being the longest. No team in the league has this record, in fact, three of the teams have changed completely twice over. A little new blood might not be a bad thing at some stages of the game.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

BROOKLYN, Sept. 14.—The Brooklyn made it four straight by taking to-day's double-header from Pittsburgh and captured the series by eight to six. With the exception of the fourth inning McJames pitched a star game in the first, striking out eight men. Williams was a particular home run over the fence, despite his hit hard and was succeeded by Gray, who gave Brooklyn two runs on a wild pitch after then did good work. In the second game Kennedy was in the net, while Hoffer was batted in timely fashion. The game was called in the seventh on account of darkness. Scores:
